GERMAN REDS ARE IN REVOLT

Four Killed and Twenty Six Injured in Hamburg

WRECK COURTHOUSE

Dresden, Aurebach and Freiberg Also Scenes of Outrages in Which Much Property is Destroyed.

Berlin, March 24.—The red flag of revolution has been raised in Germany by Communist workers. Reports from many of the larger cities and industrial centers tell of uprisings, bomb outrages, destruction of municipal buildings, courthouses, banks and police headquarters.

The uprising is believed to be connected with the Communists' attempt to force a general strike. It has the active indorsement of the German Bolshevik organ published in this city, The Red Flag, which openly advocates the use of rifles and bombs.

The uprising, which appears to have been carefully planned, began yesterday morning in Hamburg, where the Communists hoisted red flags and seized the Blohm and Voss shipyards. It soon spread to other plants, where the employes quit work and began organizing mass demonstrations.

The police attempted to disperse the Communists and a battle was staged outside the famous Vulkan shipyards. Four persons were killed and 12 badly and 14 slightly wounded.

In face of the spreading disorder the City Senate has declared a minor state of siege.

In the cities of Central Germany —Leipzig, Dresden, Auerbach, Freiberg, Rodewisch and others—the Bolshevik element among the workers resorted to bombs in their attempt to create a reign of terrorism.

The Courthouse in Leipzig was wrecked by a bomb, which blew off the roof, shattered all the windows and reduced the lobby to a mass of debris. Windows of other buildings within a radius of two blocks also were broken.

The City Hall in Rodewisch virtually was destroyed by a bomb which had been concealed in the basement.

Dynamite was used against municipal buildings in Dresden, Auerbach and Freiburg. At least three persons were severely injured and a number of others slightly hurt. Heavy property loss was caused.

Fifty armed bandits attacked the postoffice at Mansfeld last night and this morning a similar band robbed the District Savings Bank and the Kredit Bank. Yesterday afternoon strikers surrounded a meeting of police and maletreated and robbed them. Later, after the police had retired to their barracks, a fire was kept on for two hours.

At Eisleban the streets resounded to rifle fire and the explosions of hand grenades all night.

The strikers blew up a railway and three of the great Mansfeld copper mines. The excitement was increased by the appearance in a meeting of strikers of a man pretending to be Hoelz, who terrorized the region of Plauen a year ago.

Another attempt to wreck a train by removing the rail spikes occurred near Dieskau last night. A locomotive and 3 passenger coaches were derailed. A much more serious wreck occurred a few days ago in the same region, also caused by drawing the spikes.

The Red Flag in a serious of inflammatory proclamations yesterday advised its followers that the time for drastic action has come and urges them to seize arms from the military, the police and bourgeoisie and distribute them among the workmen.

The only arrest thus far reported in connection with the uprising occurred at Auerbach, where a young man who claimed to be from Danzig was caught with a sack of dynamite. A companion, who fired at the police, escaped.

Church Procession

Special Services at St. Mary's Today Attracts Large Congregation

The Holy Thursday services in St. Mary's Catholic Church were attended by a large crowd that filled every available space of the seating capacity.

High mass was celebrated by Rev. Louis Smet.

The Holy Thursday procession was most impressive. More than a hundred little girls, dressed in white and boys with sashes, each carrying a lily, acted as guards of honor, while many elder girls strewed flowers in the aisles in advance of the blessed sacrament, which was carried by Father Smet. A number of young boys in cassock and in surplice, chanted hymns, while the procession was moving through the church. Miss Margaret Armstrong, was crossbearer, and she was assisted by four little girls: Misses Roop, Roland, Carpe and Adcock, as side ribbon bearer. Eight larger girls carried carnations and lighted candles.

The Blessed Sacrament was carried upon a handsome white silk canopy adorned with four magnificent white plumes. The canopy was made in Belgium and was purchased by Father Smet during his recent visit to his native country. Four bearers are necessary to elevate it during processions. Holy Hour devotions will be held tonight at 7.30 o'clock in St. Mary's Church.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The revival services at the First Baptist Church are growing in interest and power. Last night Rev. S. W. Cole preached a sermon of great power and the service was impressive. A large congregation was present and the singing was inspiring. No clap tap methods are being used but emphasis is placed upon the word of God operating through the Holy Spirit. The membership is being revived and undoubtedly there is much interest.

Enjoyable Smoker

Many Athletic Events Staged by O. D. Boat Club

The Old Dominion Boat Club held an enjoyable smoker last night which was attended by more than 100 members. A number of athletic events were staged and at the conclusion of the program luncheon was served. Music was furnished by Chesser's orchestra.

Wrestling bouts by Snocks and Cockrell, Cornell and Currier and Brooks and Kirchman were full of science, strength and pep, while the boxing bouts between Sparks and Kid Hubert and Battling Baker and Knock Out Mike, were full of thrilling moments.

A noticeable feature of the entertainment was the clock like handling of the program by the entertainment committee, the elimination of long waits between events, As a consequence the fun begun promptly at 8 o'clock and the bouts ended at 10 o'clock. Then followed the luncheon and by 11 o'clock the crowd was on the way home.

Pictures For Children

Y. M. C. A., Arranges to Show for Boys Friday, and Girls Saturday

The Y. M. C. A., announces that it has just been put on the regular motion picture circuit of the International Committee of the Association in New York and received their first pictures to be shown to the children at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow and Saturday.

The industrial department of the Y. M. C. A., has operated a motion picture exchange for some time and has decided that Alexandria is now worthy of its service and the association at this place will receive the service regularly throughout the year.

The children's movies have become so popular that the auditorium which the Chamber of Commerce has so kindly been placing at the disposal of the association, has become too crowded and the boys will be shown the pictures Friday afternoon and the girls Saturday afternoon. The show for the boys Fridays will be at 3:30, and the girls will see the show Saturday afternoon at 3:00. This division was made very simple by the fact that the girls go to the Chamber of Commerce Saturday afternoon for their sewing classes.

The films to be shown this week are "Making Automobile Wheels," "The Hawaiian Islands," "Linoleum Making" and "Apple Blossom Time in Normandy."

NORFOLK'S TAX RATE FOR 1921 SHOWS REDUCTION

Norfolk, Va., March 24.—Norfolk's tax rate for 1921 will be $2 on the $100, which represents a reduction of 50 cents on the $100 under that in effect last year. Despite the reduction, however, Norfolk's total revenues from real property will be about $500,000 greater than the aggregate revenues derived from the same source in 1920. The new rate is based on the assessment made last year, which is 61 per cent greater than the assessment on which the 1920 rate was based.

This decrease places Norfolk among the few cities in the country with a tax rate of $2 or less. In Virginia, Lynchburg bears the distinction of having the lowest real property tax rate, the scale in that city being $1.90. In Richmond it is $2.15; in Portsmouth, Newport News and Roanoke, $2.25.

Under the city manager form of government, Norfolk has placed its finances on the same basis of a business corporation, and the various governmental departments function in the same manner as the departments of a business enterprise.

SABBATH SCHOOLS PLAN BALL LEAGUE

Expect It Will Be Composed Of From Four To Six Teams

TO MEET SHORTLY

K. E. Wallace Local Secretary of Y. M. C. A. Is Arranging For Organization.

Alexandria is to have a Sunday School base ball league. At least that is the prospect just now and the "old timers" who get the base ball fever about this time of the year are rejoicing over the fact that they will have good amateur ball this summer.

Secretary Wallace, of the Y. M. C. A., has visited several of the Sunday Schools and Bible Classes of the city and all of them have been enthusiastic over the possibility of regular base ball for the average player who plays for the love of the sport.

The league will probably be composed of no less than four teams and possibly six. A. L. Lloyd president of the Baraca Bible Class of the First Baptist Sunday School, has placed the matter of the Baraca team in the hands of the regular athletic committee, of which Robert H. Cox is chairman. This class has always taken a keen interest in sports of all kinds, and will doubtless have a good team lined up.

The Men's Bible Class of the Trinity M. E. Sunday School has appointed a committee composed of George Hayden, Albert Hurshman and W. P. Ryrd to look after team from that class. The Second Baptist Sunday School had a team last year and will undoubtedly have a strong team to compete for the honors of the Sunday School league this year.

Mr. Wallace has not been able to visit all of the Sunday Schools as yet but it is thought that many of the schools will be represented and it is also thought probable that Del Ray may be able to put a team in the league. It is planned to have each team play two games each week and other details of the league will be worked out at a meeting to be called soon.

Successful Play

Large Audience Attends Production of Passion Play

"The Upper Room," the Passion Play by Monsignor Robert Hugh Benson, was presented last night in Lyceum Hall by the players of the Catholic Women's Service Club, of Washington, under the direction of Miss Kernan, teacher of elocution in Trinity College. The hall was crowded to its capacity. The play is wonderfully simple, yet most impressive. All through the performance the actors showed a respect and a deep sense of faith befitting the august dignity of the subject. Tears came to the eyes of many, when the Mother of Jesus witnessed the fall of her son under the cross, and when Mary Magdalen and Peter voiced their sentiments of repentance and love for the Master. All the actors acquitted themselves wonderfully well of their roles, so much so that it is hard to single any one of them out for special mention, though by Peter and by Mary Magdalen, the latter was Miss Madeline O'Brien, deserve special praise.

Dublin, March 24.—A sensational rescue of Irish prisoners took place yesterday evening in County Roscommon. A military party was proceeding towards Longford in two lorries when it was ambushed by Irish forces near Strokestown, Capt. Peel, of the Ninth Lancers, and four soldiers were shot dead and several of the soldiers, including Lieut. Tenant, were wounded. The Irish attacked from both sides of the road and when the troops were over come the prisoners they had with them were taken away.

Two fights took place at Ballyporeen, County Tipperary, last night No casualties were reported, but several shops were burned by the police later as a reprisal.

Five English constables were court martialed yesterday, charged with stealing money from women in Killarney. Several witnesses testified the accused entered their homes with drawn revolvers and after robbing them fired through the windows. The court martial findings were not announced.

At a meeting of the agricultural societies yesterday Sir Horace Plunkett referred to the widespread destrution of their co operative creameries by soldiers and police, and said they had been denied justice and even a hearing by the government. The societies are now endeavoring to get public inquiry through the influence of the British co-operative societies. Sir Horace declared their organization was passing through a severe trial, but gaining morally what it was losing materially.

Police Court Grist

Assault Cases Heard—Speeders Forfeit Collateral

Lottie Fox, colored, appeared in the police court today as complainant against Ida Hawkins, whom she charged with attacking her with a knife. The arrest was made by Policemen Rawlett and Welker. Lottie said: "This woman is a terrible woman." The court heard both sides and sentenced the Hawkins woman to serve 30 days in jail.

After the court heard the testimony in the case of Edward Pinkney, colored, arrested by Policeman Magner, charged with assault upon his wife, the case was dismissed.

Two persons arrested by Policemen Magner and Durrer, charged with violating the speed law, forfeited collateral.

A young white woman who was arraigned yesterday and sentenced to serve 30 days in jail, was again arraigned this morning and sentenced to serve six months in jail. She was arrested by Policeman Durrer.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 24.—Circumstances surrounding the deaths yesterday of Mrs. Stoughton A. Fletcher and Mrs. Eva Henley, wife and mother in law, respectively, of Stoughton A. Fletcher, millionaire sportsman and banker, will be investigated at a formal inquest to be held probably Friday or Saturday Dr. Paul F. Robinson, coroner of Marion county, in a statement yesterday, said the women committed suicide by drinking poison. Mr. Fletcher left for Chicago last night, but returned here today.

The body of Mrs. Fletcher was found yesterday morning by her mother, according to Russell Stahl, butler. Stahl said he was summoned by Mrs. Henley, who was bending over her daughter's body and ordered to bring a stimulant. When he returned Mrs. Henley had disappeared, Stahl said. According to Dr. Robinson, Mrs. Henley was found a short time later in her own room in a dying condition and lived only a few minutes. She had taken the fatal dose from the glass used by her daughter.

Prosperity Week

Merchants to Take Part in Bargain Offerings April 4-11

Alexandria merchants are planning to take part in National Prosperity Week, a nation wide effort to lower prices on every commodity required by the public and a letter is to be sent to the National Prosperity Week bureau at New York City asking for plans and publicity on the big sale week.

This was the action taken by the members in attendance at the meeting of the Advertising Club of Alexandria which was held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms last evening. National Prosperity Week is from April 4 to 11 inclusive and will give the shopping public of the city the best week of bargains ever prepared in this city.

A constitution in accordance with the constitution of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World was adopted by the local club last evening and Llewellyn Dyson, of S. F. Dyson and Brothers were elected treasurer of the organization. The following were named as members of the executive committee: Messrs. Irvin Diener, Frank Michelbach, C. Page Waller, Jr. C. W. Fletcher and Theodore Harris.

The yearly membership dues in the organization were fixed at $10, payable quarterly in advance. Of this amount $1.50 per member is to be sent to the offices of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World at New York and will pay for a yearly subscription to the magazine published by that body.

A number of other matters of importance were taken up by the members of the club and discussed and a meeting of the board of directors will probably be called in the near future to prepare for a membership campaign that will include all the buyers and sellers of advertising space and their employes.

PACKER STRIKE OFF BOTH PARTIES YIELD

Unions Accept Cut, But Get Eight Hour Day

TRUCE BEFORE WAR

Attorney For Men Says Cabinet Policy Inclines to Wage Reductions—Recognition Not Discussed.

Washington, March 24.—Through the mediation of Secretary of Labor Davis, peace in the packing industry was established yesterday and the threatened strike of the stockyards employes averted.

Representatives of the packers and of the unions of their employes signed an agreement settling the present wage and hour controversy which provides:

1. That the employes accept the wage reductions put into effect by the packers last week.

2. That the packers agree to the restoration of the basic eight-hour day and overtime rates.

3. That the packers agree to the continuation until September 15, 1921, of the Aschuler arbitration system of settling disputes between them and their employes.

The settlement was effected in conferences today with Secretary Davis by both parties to the controversy. When the terms of the agreement were laid before the opposing sides for signature the packers' representatives wanted to parley further.

"Oh, what's the use of arguing" exclaimed Secretary Davis. "Sign here," pointing to the dotted lines.

The signatures of the packers' attorneys—James G. Condon and Carl Meyer—were promptly attached and the agreement was completed. Secretray Davis immediately telephoned the news to the White House.

"We have signed a truce to prepare for war," was the statement made by Redmond S. Brennan, counsel for the packers' employes, after the agreement had been announced. "If the packers after September 15, when the Aschuler agreement expires, display the same hostility toward fair and just consideration of the demands of their employes, industrial strife is certain to result. In the meantime, however, we expect to work with Secretary Davis and other Administration officials in arranging some plan for permanent arbitration in the packing industry."

At the very outset of the negotiations at the Labor Department Secretaries Davis, Hoover and Wallace made it clear that it was the opinion of the Administration that wages would have to come down along with price declines generally, according to Brennan. They virtually defined this as the attitude of the Administration in future industrial disputes. At the same time they made it equally plain that labor would have the backing of the Administration in maintaining the eight-hour day.

Mr. Brennan declared that he did not agree with the Secretaries as to the necessity for wage reductions and in signing the agreement he insisted on the addition of one article as a sort of reservation to show that he did not approve of general wage cut. He accepted the reduction on behalf of the packing employes, he explained, simply as a means of averting the strike now. He was pleased, however, with Mr. Davis' attitude toward the eight-hour day.

"I am going to tell labor that it augurs well for fair treatment of the workingmen by the new Administration," he said.

Mr. Brennan predicted that the agreement would be accepted generally by the packing employes. It will be explained and debated at mass meetings Sunday in Chicago and other packing centers he stated.

The question of union recognition by the packers did not come up during the negotiations, Mr. Brennan stated.

To be well dressed, is to be well pressed.

Greek Reserves Called.

Announcement that Greek reserves to the number of 45,000 men have been called to the colors indicates the development of an extraordinary and anomalous situation whose implications in view of recent events are not immediately apparent, and whose real significance remains to be explained.

In a statement made by Demetrois Gournaris, the Greek War Minister, the surprising action which has been taken is attributed to the rejection by the Ottoman government of the proposals of the London Conference, and to its demand for the return of Thrace and Smyrna, which were accorded to Greece by the Treaty of Sevres, but it is difficult to reconcile this allegation with the reported record of the results by which the London Conference was attended. It will be recalled that the Sevres Treaty was in effect torn up, and that a compromise, in which both the Turkish Nationalists and the Sultan's representatives acquiesced, was adopted whereby under certain restrictions the Turkish claims on Smyrna were conceded, and the ultimate disposition of Thrace was conditioned on the determination by a commission appointed to that end of the racial preponderance of its population. Should it be found that a majority of its inhabitants are of Turkish nativity or origin, the allocation of this territory to Greece was to be rescinded.

As was to be expected, the Greeks were strenuously opposed to an arrangement which so materially reduced the compensation for the assistance to the Allies which they had rendered, but their friends at the London Conference were few. The French had not forgiven them for the recall of King Constantine, who is held responsible at Paris for the slaughter of the French marines, and they received no support from the Italians, who for reasons of their own are averse to such an aggrandizement of Greece as under the terms of the Sevres Treaty would be effectuated. So even the eloquent pleadings of Venizelos were in vain, and the Greek delegates were compelled to yield to the adverse force of circumstances. But it looks now as though the Athens Government had decided to offer a military resistance to the execution of the London programme and to repudiate the conclusions of the Allies by holding on to the territory of which there is a prospect that they might presently be deprived.

It is true that Minister Gournaris describes the measures which have been taken as merely precautionary, and affects to believe that the Turkish army in Cilicia, which the evacuation of that province by the French has released, has assumed a threatening attitude to which his government cannot with ordinary prudence be insensible; but he also makes the significant remark that the mobilization of the reserves in all probability "portends" a Greek offensive, as obviously we cannot await the completion of the Turkish concentration," and he expresses full confidence "that our army will more than suffice to deal with the Kemalist forces."

But Kemal has practically been recognized by the Allies. They have treated with his delegates and have made a compact with them which Greece is disregarding. One wonders what it all means and how Greece with an empty treasury is intending to defray the cost of the independent adventure upon which it is apparently embarking.

Rev. Dr. H. P. Hammill, presiding elder of the Alexandria district of the M. E. Church South, will at 8 o'clock tomorrow afternoon lead the prayer meeting services which will be held at the Anne Lee Memorial Home for the Aged.

Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons tonight will pay a fraternal visit to Alexandria Washington Lodge and Andrew Jackson Lodge will confer degree work for Alexandria Washington Lodge. Afterward refreshments will be served.

SAYS HIS PRESCRIPTION HAS POWERFUL INFLUENCE OVER RHEUMATISM

Mr. James H. Allen, suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers.—A—has been appointed agent for Allenrhu in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money on the first two bottles they who state they received no benefits. "THE COUNTY FAIR" A TRIUMPH OF THE SCREEN

Manager Cohen, of the Idle Hour Theatre, announces that beginning Friday as a special attraction Maurice Tourneur's picture production of "The County Fair."

The screen version is based upon the famous American rural drama of the same name in which Neil Burgess as Aunt Abigail starred for a number of years and made it one of the best known pieces of theatrical property in the history of the American stage.

Where the play was necessarily limited in its scope no such cramping influences have held the picture, and Tourneur has been able to give it with a realism and effect which only the screen can uphold. It is the most talked about picture production of the season and has been breaking records in New York, Boston and Chicago, where it was given upon a scale in keeping with its bucolic theme and the simple sweetness of its environment.

The story concerns the fortunes of Aunt Abigail and her wards, who are threatened with eviction from their cozy farm home in a typical New England community. Just as this catastrophe seems about to fall Joel, her hired man, and his assistant, the ex-jockey Tim, get Cold Molasses ready for the big race at the County Fair, and the equine hero saves the fortunes of all by beating the favorite colt of the village skin flint and money lender who has schemed to ruin this worthy group. The mere skeleton of the story cannot but suggest the humorous types which people this surrounding nor can it even more than suggest the adventures, the excitements and the things which enter into the unravelling of this simple plot. It is a tale of plain people alive to developments and touched by their quaint and always interesting point of view.

It starts off quietly in the sleepy old village and reaches its stirring climax at the county fair with all that a day at the county fair means and culminates in the best horse race ever screened where Cold Molasses carries the fortunes and the loves of the central characters to a happy ending.

Wesley Barry, as the freckle-faced kid at the Fair; David Butler, as the well meaning young farm foreman and Helen Jerome Eddy, as the sweet and sympathetic ward of Aunt Abigail, are the leading players in the story who have since been starred in their own productions. In addition Edith Chapman, William V. Mong, John Stepping, Charles Barton and Arthur Housman round out an exceptionally well knit cast.

Virginia Wife Trails Husband and Woman

Philadelphia, Pa., March 23.—A mother of six children trailed her husband to this city from Parksley, Va., and had him arrested in Broad Street Station last night with another woman.

The wife is Mrs. Etta Bundick, and she told Magistrate Renshaw yesterday that her husband and the other woman, Mrs. Helen Roe, came here last Saturday and were returning home.

Magistrate Renshaw held the husband, John D. Bundick, 40, and Mrs. Roe, who is 24, in $600 bail for a further hearing Thursday.

Magistrate Renshaw asked Mrs. Bundick the usual question, "Is this your husband?" when she confronted Bundick and Mrs. Roe.

"I suppose I'll have to admit he is," she replied. "I've been married to him for twenty-one years, and we have had ten children, but four of them died.

"I don't know the reason Judge, like to go; if I was to tell all unless it is the is more attractive than I. I'm sorry we weren't all born pretty. If this is all, Your Honor, I'd would take about five hours."
